THOMAS PRINTZ' PRIVATE BULLETIN

April 12, 1953

No. 3

****

This morning I have come from the Heart of India which, for inconceivable centuries of time, has been the Guardian Presence of the spiritual understanding by which mankind (if they choose) might fashion from the heterogenous mass of subtle ether which they call the soul, a fitting white garment of the spirit which, like the seed, contains within itself the pattern for the Immortal Ego.

Last evening, in a service in the heart of the Kashmiri Hills, We demonstrated, visibly, the development and purification of the outer consciousness to that point of development befitting the entrance of the Spiritual Self, in Its fullness, into the possession of the entire personality.

The Soul of the mass of mankind, which has given rise to the innumerable stories of the supernatural, is a shapeless and impure mass of subtle ether that has been, on many occasions, perceived by those whose sight was attuned to the vibratory action of its inhabitant.

The Soul of the Initiate Chela and the Holy One, in which the experiences of life have been woven into mastery, purity and peace, externalizes, however, the well-defined form of the Pure White Dove - symbolical of the harmlessness and virtues of the beautiful harbinger of Peace - the embodiment of Innocence.

When the Initiate, within himself, has achieved that consciousness whereby the Dove is externalized within his own aura, such an one is ready for the Spiritual Baptism, and to him comes Lord Maitreya in the fullness of His Glory; and to him come I, the Holy Spirit, and into that consciousness, evolved through centuries of righteous living, is released the full Pressure and Power of the Christ Self.

Such an one becomes, then, the 'only-begotten Son' and his mission, like that of the Master Jesus, is to externalize the Will of the Father Who sent him.

Here we see that no external mark, no word, no advocate can mark such an one for this Visitation; but rather the substance and energy of each life fashioned, one day, the Chalice which is worthy of the Christ Power - Incarnate.

Blessings and Love

MAHA CHOHAN

****